ABOUT US

All saffron slated for export comes directly from the latest harvest of Atrin's own dedicated farm in Gha'enat – without the aid of any intermediaries. We provide only the highest grade of saffron to our customers world-wide solely by air freight. All our saffron is routinely tested in our laboratory by our own professional staff to ascertain its quality and is carefully inspected under special equipment to exclude any extraneous materials. Atrin's saffron and saffron related products, is in strict compliance with all relevant certifications and international standards and is in conformity with all strict health, safety and environmental.protection standards for products sold in any part of the world.

MISSION STATEMENT

Saffron is well known in the Middle East and is a common ingredient in many Middle Eastern dishes. However, although saffron has been the subject of a few double-blind experiments, chiefly in the US, and its many medical benefits have been substantiated, presently, saffron is not a common culinary ingredient outside the Middle East Our mission, therefore, is to make this precious spice universally known for its culinary and medical benefits and promote its utilization.
